

Fairport Personal Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Tinker of Penfield have returned from a 15 day trip to New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and Newfoundland. They took the William Carson ship from North Sydney, Nova Scotia to the Port and Basques, Newfoundland and took their car with them. It was an overnight trip by boat — leaving in the evening. They arrived the next day. They then drove up the West Coast directly north to Corner Brook, a rugged 6 hour drive on the Trans-Canadian highway over unpaved mountain roads and through forests. Corner Brook has the largest paper mill industry in the world. From there they drove north to Deer Lake, which is in the logging country. On their return trip they saw a large bull moose about 20 feet ahead of the car, in a slow walk. The return trip was made by way of Halifax, St. John where they visited Reversing Falls, then to Bangor Maine, down to Boston and to Sturbridge Village, Mass. They experienced perfect weather until they arrived at Bangor.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carini Sr. of High Street, with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Miner of Briggs Avenue and Mr. and Mrs. John Carini Jr. of Rte. 31 spent the weekend in Long Beach, N. Y. There they attended a reception on Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Governale (the former Pauline Carini), whose wedding took place in Raymond Memorial Baptist Church on Saturday, Sept. 9th. The reception, given by Dr. and Mrs. Vincent Governale, parents of the bridegroom, was held at the Colony Beach Club at the Lido Beach Hotel.

Miss Beverly Raup, student nurse at Craig Colony in Seneca, left Tuesday morning for Elmhurst Hospital Long Island where she will train for one year in general nursing. This is in affiliation with her training at Craig Colony. Miss Raup is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Verne Raup of DeLand, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Tuttle of 42 Nelson Street have recently returned from a seven week tour of the West. They traveled through 20 states and the Canadian Rockies, and called on relatives and friends in many of these states. The Tuttles enjoyed the National Parks, beautiful scenery, and historical sites throughout their trip in the Western United States.
